

About Our Speakers

Rev. Todd Wilken

Todd Wilken has hosted the radio program Issues, Etc. since 1998. Wilken serves as assistant Pastor at Trinity Lutheran Church in Millstadt, IL. He and his wife have two children and three grandchildren.

Wilken is a graduate of Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. Wilken has written articles and essays for Modern Reformation magazine, Higher Things magazine, For the Life of the World magazine, The Lutheran Witness and Teachers' Interaction. He is author of the booklet, Same-Sex Marriage: Facing the Question, and is a contributor to Where Christ Is Present: A Theology for All Seasons on the 500th Anniversary of the Reformation and The Faith Once Delivered: Meditations on the Apostles' Creed. He is formerly co-editor of the journal Doctrine and Practice, and editor of the Issues, Etc. Journal.

Wilken also hosts a weekly radio podcast "Crossroads with Terry Mattingly," focusing on media coverage of religion, produced jointly by Issues, Etc. and GetReligion.org. He has spoken at numerous Lutheran conferences and served as a guest instructor for Christ Academy at Concordia Theological Seminary, Fort Wayne, IN and for the International Academy of Apologetics, Evangelism and Human Rights in Strasbourg, France.

Rev. Mark Preus

Mark Preus grew up in East Grand Forks, MN and in Racine, WI. He spent a year abroad in Dresden, Germany during High School and then attended Bethany Lutheran College in Mankato, MN. There he met his bride to be, Rebecca (Streufert). He completed a B.A. in Latin at the University of MN while attending University Lutheran Chapel from 2002-2004. He then attended Concordia Theological Seminary in Fort Wayne, IN, completing his vicarage as a campus vicar at Trinity Lutheran in Norman, OK. After graduating with an M.Div. in 2008 from CTS, he attended the University of KS in Lawrence, where he obtained an M.A. in Classics. He was ordained August 8, 2010 at Faith Lutheran Church in Wylie, TX. During his time at Faith Lutheran in Wylie, he also taught at Faith Lutheran High School in Plano. He was installed as pastor of St. Andrew's on September 14, 2014.

Mark and Becky met when they were teenagers and fell in love over theology and coffee and long walks. They were married in June 2005. Becky graduated in 2005 from Concordia Mequon with a B.A. in English. She and Mark have been blessed with nine children, Hannah (2006), Paul (2007), John and Anastasia (2009), Christian (2011), Isaiah (2012), Andrew (2015), Kristen (2016), and little Abigail (2018)...

Pr. Preus likes coffee too much, tobacco too much, and Lutheran hymns probably too much, but can you really like Lutheran hymns too much? He loves talking about theology, religion, culture, and the daily challenges of life. He enjoys cross-country skiing and hiking, reading and writing poetry and hymns, and sampling the many delicious microbrews Laramie has to offer. He and Becky teach their children at home, and they love to talk about what they learn. Every year the Preus family tries to retreat to the family cabin in western Ontario to meet family and drink the clean water out of pristine Gunflint Lake.

Rev. Dr. Ronald Garwood

Dr. Garwood left Husky Oil to attend Concordia Theological Seminary in Ft. Wayne, Indiana in June of 1980. Graduated from the Seminary in 1983 with Master of Divinity degree and was placed as Pastor at Bethel Lutheran Church in Lander, Wyoming. Accepted a call to Immanuel Lutheran Church in Sheridan, Wyoming in 1986 and served as Pastor there until being elected District President of the Wyoming District in 1994. Prior to election as DP he served in the District as a Circuit Visitor, Chairman of Mission Commission, District Reconciler, First Vice President of the District and Chairman of the Board of Directors of the District. Served as DP for 12 years and then retired from that position, and accepted a call to serve part time as Associate Pastor of Mt. Hope Lutheran Church in Casper, Wyoming.

Awarded Doctor of Divinity – Honoris Causa from Concordia Theological Seminary in Ft. Wayne in May of 1999. He is married to Betty for 58 years, and the couple has four children, four grandchildren, and one great grandchild.

Dr. Garwood is presently semi-retired and serves as Assistant Pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church in Cody, Wyoming, and also serves as Chairman of the Board of Regents of Concordia Theological Seminary in Ft. Wayne, Indiana.
